SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH CALAIS MAINE

THE PEW REVIEW

FROM PASTOR CHRIS

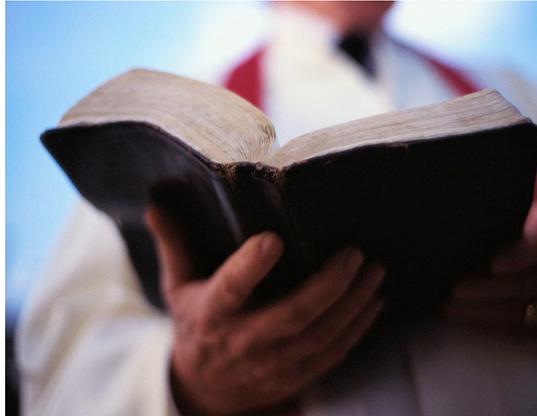

Dear Church Family:

I would like to thank you all for making my ordination so very special! This has been two years in the making and the beauty of the ordination service is simply a reflection of the strength and unity of our congregation.

I want to especially thank the Diaconate for working hard through this, as well as the Trustees for making our building beautiful for the big day. Sally and all of the kitchen help provided a delicious meal for 175 guests, and everyone left well-fed and happy. A special thanks to those who participated in the service itself: Kathy Francis, Flo Russell, Jim Walton, Sandra Sherrad, Jeff Doten, George Stevens, and Mary McLellan.

There were many comments made as to how wonderful it was and we can especially be thankful to God for making this all happen in the first place!

With Love - Pastor Chris

OUR GUESTS

Pastor Chris certainly had a wonderful ordination. Our guests came from as far away as Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, and all over Maine to take part in this very blessed event at 2nd Baptist Church. All one can say is, "It was a WOW event."

Thank you for being here

Sunday School. Bible Studies, Prayer Meetings

Now don't forget the date: September 9 at 9:30 am our Sunday School classes begin. Classes are available for all ages—0 to 100+. Ladies Bible Study starts on September 18, at 9:30am. For more information, contact Mary McLellan. Prophecy Class will begin on September 12 at 6:30 pm, directly after Prayer Meeting at 6pm. The Executive Board will start their monthly meetings on September 9 at 7pm. And, Rally Day, 12noon, outside BBQ on September 9. Last, but certainly not least, Morning Worship will be starting the fall schedule on September 9. Services will begin at 10:45am.

Everything changes
when fall begins.

Our Teaching Staff

This year we have two new faces to add to our Sunday School teaching staff: Pastor Chris and Karen Thomas.

Karen has volunteered to be our Nursery teacher. This is the first year Karen has taught and, although she is nervous about it, her experience as a nurse and mother will enable her to be a great asset to the staff. Karen will be assisted by Debbie Little.

Pastor Chris has decided to teach the high school student. High schoolers, you are in for a real treat. With Pastor's knowledge of the Bible and his sense of humor, this will be a great class.

Our returning staff consists of Dana Johnson, Grades 7/8. His right-hand assistant is Kathy Francis.

Mary McLellan, assisted by Sandra Sherrard is returning to the Grades 5/6 level. Mary is also our Ladies Bible Study leader. She does a good job in both positions.

Grades 3/4 remain the same with Tammy Ginn leading the group. Tammy has taught this and teacher of Grades K-2 is Karen Marshall. Karen also teaches at Calais Elementary School.

Junior Church will be taught by Jenny Stevens. Jenny worked last year in this area but decided to do it full time. She will be a great addition. Jenny loves to work with the younger students and will be a value asset in their Christian training. Thank you to all our dedicated staff.

grade level for several years and "nobody does it better."

This isn't Angel, but it looks something like her.

The Church Mouse by A. Rodent, Jr.

Hi, everyone!!

I have had a great couple of weeks. Remember I've been complaining so much about being lonesome. Well, I'm here to tell you, times have changed.

I have the greatest new friend any mouse could expect. She's cute, she's little, she loves to chase things, and she likes me. Guess what, her name is Angel. She's not a mouse, she's a dog.

Every Friday Angel comes for a visit and we have the greatest time. We have discovered it's kinda' hard to get a good footing on the fellowship hall floor. We slip and slide all over the place. The other day, poor Angel even bumped her nose on the table leg. She's OK, so don't worry.

I just wanted to let you all know that Angel is my best friend now. Even if another mouse comes along, she will still be my friend. What a cutie!!!

See you later, gotta' go play.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find “filler” articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web site. Microsoft Publisher offers a simple way to convert your newsletter to a Web publication. So, when you're finished writing your newsletter, convert it to a Web site and post it.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial. You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 75-125 words. Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the organization.

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to Caption describing picture or graphic. remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a biannual charity auction.

If space is available, this is a good place to insert a clip art image or some other graphic.
