GRADUTES

- * All your dreams can come true, if you have the courage to pursue them.
- * Go for it now! The future is promised to no one.
- * The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams.
- * Don't judge each day by the harvest you reap but by the seeds that you plant.

- * What lies behind you and what lies before you are tiny matters compared to what lies within you.
- * Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world.

What Is A Dad?

It's almost Father's Day, and millions of dads around the world will gather their children around them and welcome the ties or socks or set of tools that the kids offer as an expression of love.

The internet also provides an opportunity to say, "I love you, Dad!" On some Web sites, people can post their stories or poems about Dad, and praise them on this one day of the year devoted to fathers. Here

WHAT IS A VACATION?
 A vacation is a series of 2's. It consists of 2 weeks, which may be 2 short. Afterwards, you are 2 tired 2 return to work, but too broke not 2. Therefore be sure 2 bring or mail 2 the church, your 2 weeks of offering before you leave. If not, we will be 2 far behind 2 do all that the things the Lord wants us 2 do.

WHAT IS A DAD?

A dad is a person who is loving and kind, And often he knows what you have on your mind. He's someone who listens, suggests, and defends. A dad can be one of your very best friends! He's proud of your triumphs, but when things go wrong,
 A dad can be patient and helpful and strong, In all that you do, a dad's love plays a part. There's always a place for him deep in your heart. And each year that passes, you're even more glad More grateful and proud just to call him your dad!
 Thank you, Dad....for listening and caring, For giving and sharing, but, especially for just being Fathers and mothers in scripture are a metaphor for the way in which God relates to us as God's creation and God's children—"children" being another metaphor. "Father" is a frequent metaphor in the Bible to help us understand how God loves us and protects us as a good father should.

Of course, earthly fathers and mothers—and children—are often not ideal. But we understand what ideal is. We get it. And we are thankful that God loves us, provides for us and takes care of us as good earthly father does. So on the 17th and all days, we are thankful for our dads, and for our heavenly Father.

THE CHURCH MOUSE by Maudie

Oh, I am so thankful for this great weather. I don't think I want another rainy week.

Maxi and I have been so busy trying to get the garden planted. We do it between raindrops. Speaking of the dear lady, here she comes now.

“Hi, Maudie, what's on the agenda today? Any special plans?”

“Just sitting here in the old rocker and enjoying God's rays on my body. Have you had lunch?”

“Funny, I was about to ask you the same thing. No, but I thought we could go down to the restaurant and find some good scraps now that the dinner hour is over.”

‘Oh, Maxi, I don't know. What would people think seeing us down there going through the garbage? They'd kick us out of the church.’

“I just knew you wouldn't like that idea,,,you're just so, so, so “upperity” about little things like that. Do you want to settle for cracker crumbs when you could have leftover chicken?”

Maxi paused for a minute, then replied, “Do you promise to say grace before we dive in?”

“Yes, I'll ask for a blessing. Now get your boots on...we're going

CHURCH LADIES WITH TYPEWRITERS

1. The Fasting & Prayer Conference includes meals.
2. The sermon this morning: Jesus Walks on the Water.
The sermon tonight: Searching for Jesus.
3. Ladies, don't forget the rummage sale. It's a chance to get rid of those things not worth keeping around the house. Bring your husbands.
4. For those of you who have children and don't know it, we have a nursery downstairs.
5. The pastor would appreciate it if the ladies of the congregation would lend him their electric girdles for the pancake breakfast next Sunday.
6. Weight Watchers will meet at 7pm at the First Presbyterian Church. Please use the large double door at the side entrance.
7. This evening at 7pm there will be a hymn sing in the park across from the church. Bring a blanket and come prepared to sin.

THIS 'N THAT

Please note: If there are any items you want to submit to the newsletter give them to either Pastor Matt or me. Thank you.

The military tribute wall has been rearranged. Little fingers could reach some pictures and be cut. Thank you to Sharon Waycott for the many hours she worked on this.

Rita Stewart was recently in Bangor for medical appointments.

Sandra Sherrard is scheduled for surgery on June 7. At this time, it looks as if she will have half of her left lung removed. Please keep her in prayer.

Also on the sick list is George Murphy. George has cancer in his kidney. He will be going for treatments in Brewer. Again, pray for his recovery.

Thank you to the Diaconate for treating us to a beautiful brunch on the 20th. It's hard work to organize lunches or suppers, but the hardest part is the clean-up. Just remember.....many hands make light work.

Happy traveling to Issie Gibson and her family as some of them go to Delaware to meet "another" great-grandchild. Issie stay healthy while you're away.

Pastor Matt took part in his brother's wedding on June 2. The wedding was at the Caribou Baptist Church.

Ron Williams...thank you for keeping the lawn mowed. :-)

Just a reminder to each of you... be sure to keep your doors locked. There have been many break-ins in the area. Some people have been robbed even while in their homes. Be careful!

THE DIACONATE

Members of our Diaconate Board are: Steve McFadden, Dana Johnson, Sandra Sherrard, Abe Holmes, Mary McLellan, Issie Gibson, and Muriel Doten. If you have a spiritual need or someone just to come for a visit, please do not hesitate to call. Any one would be happy to

The Trustees

The Trustees recently applied for a church grant from the Greenough Foundation in Portland. This grant, if approved, will allow us to have the lower entrance completely repaired and a new roof to cover the stairs and walkway. Pray that this is a successful

Executive Board

At the May meeting of the Board the finances of the church were carefully reviewed. After much discussion of the cost of the lower entrance and a new roof, two things were decided: 1) check on what it would cost monthly to take out a second mortgage, 2) apply to the Greenough Foundation to partially cover the cost of the lower entrance. All reports by board and committee members were

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the organization.

Back Page Story Headline

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a biannual charity auction.

If space is available, this is a good place to insert a clip art image or some other graphic.

Caption describing picture or graphic.
